

MISTAKES

Aristotle said, “Criticism is something you can avoid easily – by saying nothing, doing nothing and being nothing.”

#1) Take a moment and think about the BIGGEST leadership mistake you have ever made? What was it? What were the circumstances around it?

#2) Think about what you learned from that mistake. What came out of that? Did you ever make the same mistake again? Why or why not?

#3) Think about who helped you survive and recover from that mistake. Did you have people around you or did you feel alone? Do you have people around you now?

#4) Looking at the mistake you are thinking about, what would you help your staff, your team, your coworkers, your family to avoid the same thing you went through? Have you used your experience to help someone else avoid the same thing?

Make your mistakes count!

www.leadermundial.org

